The Fund's Aims and Objectives

The aim of the Fund is to provide financial support for the advancement of the Christian religion in Europe and the former USSR.

Policies

The Trustees require to receive regular reports and prayer letters from the beneficiaries, so that their grants and prayer support are known to be relevant and up-to-date.

The Trustees seek to make the work of the Fund, and its beneficiaries, known amongst supporters and potential supporters in the UK. The Trustees look to develop links with British based churches and their members.

The Trustees seek to ensure that donors are encouraged to give in a tax efficient manner.

The Trustees review the Fund's commitments in relation to its income, with the intention that all current commitments can be met from current levels of income.

Activities and Achievements

During the period of this Report the Fund provided financial assistance to Colin and Bron Cleaver, who were working with Operational Mobilisation in Russia, and to a student at a Bible School in Sweden. The Fund provided a new Laptop computer for use in Russia.

Regular prayer and news letters were circulated amongst supporters in UK and elsewhere, and meetings were arranged to make the work of the Fund, and of its beneficiaries, more widely known.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Fund's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to:

select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Fund will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Fund and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the Fund and to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Fund and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Mission Support Fund

I report on the financial statements for the year ended 31st March 2002, which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As described on page 3 the charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; they consider that the audit requirement of section 43 (2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply, and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts (under S43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act), and follow procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43 (7)(b) of the Act, and state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirement of the Act have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
